Where Alumni Live & Work:

"Majoring in Legal Studies provided the foundational skills I needed to accelerate my career. The Legal Studies major taught me how to properly research by utilizing and interpreting different resources. It also taught me how to analyze masses of information, interpret it, and produce a concise and persuasive argument. Both of these skills are extremely valuable and used daily in my career as a contract manager for Mayo Clinic."

Samantha Francis, 2017
Contract Manager, Mayo Clinic

"Legal Studies courses equipped me with the necessary knowledge to understand the criminal legal system, so I could work with cross-disciplinary leaders to effect change across the system. From interviewing courses to Sociology of Gender, my major also prepared me to serve the diverse population that interfaces with the criminal legal system every day."

Erin Perkins, 2008
